

I am writing to formally accept the job offer for the position of at . Thank you very much for this opportunity.

I am eager to join your team and contribute to the company's success. I confirm my start date as and look forward to working with everyone.

Please let me know if there are any forms or additional information you need before then.

Sincerely,