

Group Project Peer Review Confidentiality Agreement

Purpose

This agreement serves to affirm the confidential nature of the peer review process for the group project. By signing below, the reviewer acknowledges their responsibility to respect and uphold the privacy of their peers' submissions, feedback, and discussions related to this project.

Agreement

- I will not share, discuss, or disclose peer submissions or feedback with anyone outside the designated group, except as required by the instructor or course guidelines.
- I will provide honest, constructive, and respectful feedback.
- I understand that unauthorized sharing of reviewed material may result in academic consequences.
