

Ethical Souvenir Vendor Pledge

As a vendor of souvenirs, I commit to the following ethical principles:

- To offer products that are authentic and respectfully represent local culture.
- To source items in a manner that is sustainable and respectful of the environment.
- To collaborate fairly with local artisans and communities.
- To ensure transparency in the origin and materials of my products.
- To avoid selling products that exploit or misappropriate cultural heritage.
- To provide accurate information to customers about all items sold.

I understand that upholding these values is essential to promoting positive impact for communities, cultures, and customers.
