

Couples Retreat Privacy Agreement

This Privacy Agreement (  Agreement  ) outlines the policies and procedures regarding the collection, use, and disclosure of personal information in connection with participation in the Couples Retreat (  Retreat  ). By participating, attendees agree to the terms set forth below.

1. Information Collected

- Personal identification information (such as names, contact details, emergency contacts).
- Relevant health or dietary information required for attendance and safety.
- Other information voluntarily provided during registration or participation.

2. Purpose of Information Use

Personal information will only be used for purposes related to the organization, administration, and safety of the Retreat, including:

- Registration and communication about Retreat events.
- Providing services and accommodations catering to guest needs.
- Ensuring health and safety measures during the Retreat.

3. Confidentiality

- All personal information will be kept confidential and will not be shared with unauthorized parties.
- Discussion, activities, and personal sharing during the Retreat are to be respected and kept confidential by all participants.

4. Disclosure of Information

- Personal information will only be disclosed with consent, or when required by law or for health and safety emergencies.

5. Security

- Reasonable measures will be taken to protect attendee information from unauthorized access or disclosure.

6. Rights of Attendees

- Participants may request access to, correction of, or deletion of their personal information at any time.

7. Agreement and Acknowledgment

By joining the Couples Retreat, each attendee acknowledges that they have read, understood, and agree to abide by the terms of this Privacy Agreement.

Date:

Participant Name(s):

Signature(s):