

Dear

I am writing to request your support as a sponsor for our art program. We are seeking donations of art supplies to help students explore their creativity and develop their artistic skills. Your contribution would make a significant difference in providing quality materials for our projects and workshops.

We welcome any assistance you can offer and would be happy to acknowledge your support in our communications and events.

Sincerely,