

Online Nutrition Consultation Consent

I hereby consent to participate in an online nutrition consultation provided by the registered nutritionist/dietitian. I understand that this consultation will occur via telecommunication and may include information about diet, nutrition, and health.

Information & Acknowledgements

- I understand that online consultations have limitations compared to face-to-face appointments, including potential technology failures and lack of physical assessment.
- I agree to provide accurate and complete information about my health, medical history, and lifestyle during consultations.
- I acknowledge that all personal information will be treated confidentially and in accordance with privacy regulations.
- I understand that nutrition recommendations do not replace medical advice from my healthcare provider.
- I understand I may withdraw my consent and discontinue participation at any time.

I have read and understood the above information and consent to participate in the online nutrition consultation.
